Dear Dr. Yamada:

I am writing at the request and on the behalf of Mark C. Johnston. Supervisory Special Agent Johnston is the Northeast Regional Program Manager (RPM) for the FBI's Employee Assistance Program which falls under my supervision. He is also a doctoral graduate of your institution.

He has served under my command in his capacity as RPM for the past five years. It was a sad day when we learned of his plans to retire. Agent Johnston has been a mainstay of our program operations for these past five years and he has served his entire twenty four year career with distinction. His work with us has been a blessing of skill, experience, and compassion. He has touched the lives of thousands. His judgement has been impeccable and his sincerity unerring.

Doctor Johnston completed his program with you while serving with us. I was able to follow the growth in his thinking with great interest as he progressed in his studies. His education broadened his interests and deepened his knowledge. The program and the employees of the FBI were the ultimate beneficiaries of the scholarship he so admirably pursued. For the FBI as an organization and myself as a manager I thank you for the fruits of your program as we will be forever thankful for being graced by the presence of Dr. Johnston.

Sincerely,

Richard E. Kelly, Ed.D.
Unit Chief
